Message from the President

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of all of us at WGU, I congratulate you and welcome you to our commencement. We recognize and respect the hard work and sacrifices you have made to complete your degree, and today is your day to celebrate this important milestone in your life.

We share your excitement and pride in this achievement—one that has the potential to make a real difference for you, your family, and even future generations. As you join the ranks of the more than 275,000 WGU graduates, we hope you will stay in touch through the Alumni Network.

Again, thank you for joining us today. We are so grateful for the opportunity to share this day with you and your loved ones. Congratulations!

Commencement Speaker

Andrew Joslyn

Recording Artist, Composer and Producer

Andrew Joslyn, composer, orchestrator, and violinist, is an award-winning musical polymath whose passion for collaboration has led him to work with a remarkably diverse group of world-class artists, touring the world, performing, co-writing and arranging music on over 400 songs throughout his career.

Along the way he has amassed an extensive list of writing, orchestrating, recording and touring credits that include Macklemore, Kesha, Judy Collins, Leslie Odom Jr., Lizzy McAlpine, Nancy Wilson of Heart, Blind Pilot, K Flay, Chase Rice, Tom Chaplin of Keane, Michael Bolton, Duff McKagan of Guns N Roses, The Seattle Symphony, and many others.

Andrew currently runs his own music production studio in Seattle, and has scored several feature-length films, and writes music for artists, labels, podcasts, music licensing houses, and commercials. He is an avid music advocate with the Recording Academy as co-chair of National advocacy, a board member of SMASH (Seattle Musicians Access to Sustainable Healthcare), and has a Mayoral appointment to the Seattle Music Commission.
