

SCAN THE QR CODE
to view current degrees

WGU SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

School of Business Students Learn at the Speed of Business

The WGU School of Business offers career-aligned, affordable programs designed to give students the future-focused skills they need to lead and thrive at the pace of today's business world. Led by Mitsu Frazier, senior vice president and executive dean, the school offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs as well as certificate programs, all designed to meet workforce needs while advancing students' careers.

Mitsu Frazier
Senior VP and
Executive Dean
WGU School of Business

Accreditation and Designations

62,962

Current Enrollment

116,539

Total Alumni

Data as of June 30, 2025*

Areas of Impact

Leading Industry Partnerships

The School of Business actively works to positively impact the corporate landscape by building industry-aligned programs in partnership with industry leaders like Google, HubSpot, and IDEO, and professional associations.

Leader in Business Degrees

The WGU School of Business is the largest conferrer* in the U.S. for bachelor's degrees in human resource management, accounting, and information technology management; master's degrees in accounting; and MBA degrees in healthcare management and information technology management.

Source: IPEDS Completion Survey, 2023 Report Year*

Student Organizations

