WGU

WGU and Maryland

Western Governors University is the nation's leading nonprofit, online university and is mission-driven to transform higher education to be more student-centric, affordable, accessible, and workforce relevant. WGU operates in all 50 states and offers over 100 bachelor's, master's, and certificate programs in healthcare, education, technology, and business.

77% One or more underserved populations

43% First generation college students

50% Historically underrepresented races and ethnicities

17% Low income

7% Rural

Maryland Enrolled Students
3,013

Maryland Alumni
5,988

57% Work while enrolled

28% Military affiliated

14% Active duty

10% Veterans

32 Median age

Data as of June 30, 2025

WGU and Maryland at a Glance

30 Months
Average time to earn a bachelor's degree from WGU

$8,330
Average annual cost in FY 2025 for WGU undergraduate programs compared to a national average of $12,375[*]

$771,117
Amount of WGU scholarship funding awarded to Maryland students in FY 2025

18
Number of WGU partnerships in Maryland

[*]Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (2023)