B.S. Business Administration Management

Regina's Student Journey

Regina is a single mom of two kids. She has worked her way up at McDonalds over the years, while taking care of her family.

She got her associate degree in business at The College of Southern Nevada. She has also done leadership training at Hamburger University.

Now that her kids are getting older, Regina wants to advance her career with McDonalds. Furthering her education will help

PROSPECT TO ENROLLED

Regina, 38

Store Manager for 12 years.

Challenges

Time constraints—needs a flexible option.

Wants to go fast, in all aspects of experience.

Financial—she supports her family and doesn't have much money for education. Wants to maximize her transfer credits.

Education

Graduated high school. Associate degree in business management. Completed three Leadership Programs with Hamburger University.

Apply

Applies to WGU and Enrollment Counselor.

Fills out FAFSA and applies for WGU McDonald's Scholarship.

Costs: Free application.

Regina has transcripts transferred from her community college and Hamburger U.

Credentials are evaluated for admission.

Admitted to WGU.

Month 2 ▶

Enroll

Regina is approved and has an intake interview with her Enrollment Counselor

Finalizes financial aid and scholarships.

Connects with her assigned Mentor for Welcome Čall.

Completes Orientation, Academic Planning Tools, and her 20-hour weekly study schedule.

Months 3-4 ▼

Term 1

Regina and her mentor set the term plan, and she enrolls on the first day of the term start. Regina decides with her Mentor that she wants to accelerate her program, so she sets a goal to complete 20 CUs per term.

Each week, Regina connects with her Mentor to discuss progress toward her goals and sets an action plan for the next week.

Regina's first Course Instructor reaches out within three days of her starting the course to offer tips on how to study/learn and provides contact information and a scheduling link in case she wants to meet one on one to discuss course material

Term 2

Now that Regina is comfortable with her learning, she and her Mentor meet once every other week

Regina surprised herself by completing one of her courses very quickly and was able to complete an extra course above her goal.

By the end of her first term, she has completed three HR Management courses and has earned the Human Resources Management micro-credential.

Graduation Regina graduates!

Regina and her family attend Commencement Weekend.

Regina connects with the WGU Career & Professional Development Center to update her resume and engages in one-to-one coaching on how she can leverage her recent achievement in her career progression. She explores additional career opportunities at McDonald's and receives coaching through the McDonald's application and interview process.

WGU alumni have access to career and professional development services for life.

Term 3

Regina has completed all the required competency units to earn her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Management.

GRADUATION!

ENROLLED STUDENT

SKIP AHEAD WITH CREDIT TRANSFEI